KAREN J. BRASEL, MD, MPH, FACS

Dr. Karen Brasel, Professor of Surgery, is the General Surgery Residency Program Director at Oregon Health & Science University (OHSU) in Portland, Oregon. Dr. Brasel received her medical degree from the University of Iowa, completed her surgical residency and master's degree in Public Health at the University of Minnesota, and her surgical critical care fellowship at the University of North Carolina. Prior to her position at OHSU, Dr. Brasel was given a dual appointment as a Professor of Surgery in Trauma and Critical Care and as a Professor of Health and Bioethics at the Medical College of Wisconsin (MCW), as well as Medical Director of the Surgical Intensive Care Unit and Associate Trauma Medical Director at Froedtert Memorial Lutheran Hospital. Dr. Brasel also served as a Clerkship Director, Director of Resident Research, and as the Director of the Surgical Critical Care Fellowship Program for eight years at MCW. She is the recipient of multiple teaching awards, including the Association of Surgical Education's Outstanding Teacher Award in 2006.

Dr. Brasel is a nationally renowned leader in many aspects of surgery, including her role as Contributing Author and Sub-Committee Chair for the Surgical Education and Self-Assessment Program (SESAP®) for many years and currently as the international director of ATLS®. She served two years as Chair of the Curriculum Committee for the Association of Surgical Education and has served on several committees for the American Association for the Surgery of Trauma. She serves on the Executive Committee of the American College of Surgeons Board of Governors and the American College of Surgeons Task Force on Surgical Palliative Care, and is a Director of the American Board of Surgery. Her research interests, funded by the National Institutes of Health and the Centers for Disease Control, include post-injury quality of life and functional outcomes, surgical palliative care, ethics and education.

43rd Annual Meeting
June 16-18, 2017
(Friday, Saturday, and Sunday)

Concept and Objective

This course is developed to bring graduates up-to-date with ongoing cutting-edge research and activities in the field of surgery. Housestaff research presentations affect this aim.

An honored guest discusses two major surgical considerations for the current year. Additional focus topics in this annual meeting include: General Surgery, Vascular Surgery, and Trauma and Acute Care Surgery.

Time is allotted for questions, answers, and discussion of presentations between alumni and faculty.

Accreditation
